MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Security

SUBJECT: Release of U. S. Classified Information (Non-Military) to Foreign Governments

REFERENCE: Your Memorandum, Same Subject, 22 May 1963

1. In response to your query as to whether we are aware of any instance in which released information has been compromised or not properly protected by recipient governments, a survey of all DD/R components produces no knowledge of any such instance.

2. Mr. George C. Miller, Assistant Director for ELINT, has just returned this week from an around the world trip during course of which he visited numerous bases and various other liaison services. He reports that even in the course of this travel he did not encounter any report of a problem of this type. It appeared [redacted] for example, that they were having some internal problem with their own procedures, but this is just a matter of their own internal efficiency and did not involve any security weaknesses.
